WANTED TO TAKE HER LIFE.

Two Men Go to the Home of Mrs. Rhodes and Threaten to Kill Her.

With tears in her eyes and an infant in her arms, Mrs. Annie E. Rhodes, the mother of William J. Rhodes, who shot and killed W. Frank Barnett some time ago, yesterday afternoon said that two men threatened to take her life. It was about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the men went to the home of Mrs. Rhodes, at No. 812 North Twenty-third Street, and drew pistols in her presence, declaring that they were going to kill her. They claimed that they wanted to kill her because Mrs. Rhodes had said something about their mother and for other reasons. One drew a pistol and pointed it at Mrs. Rhodes' head, saying: "I am going who threatened to take her life, Mrs. Rhodes stated that she had said nothing about the men's mother. When the men came to Mrs. Rhodes' house they were invited in the parlor and it was in there that the pistol was drawn in the presence of her daughter's baby. Mrs. Rhodes acted bravely and dared the man to shoot, to-day at 1 o'clock. My their should be bad done nothing to be saying that she had done nothing to be killed for. She then ran into the street, screaming and the men disappeared. She reported the occurrence to Policeman Pendleton, who told her to keep her front door locked and have a warrant sworn out for the arrest of the guilty

This land is in the highest state of cultivation, and embraces about one hundred acres of river low grounds, which easily yield sixty bushels of corn per acre. The annual hay crop is about one hundred tons. The buildings are a very handsome mansion, containing fourteen rooms, bath-room, and modern conveniences; overseer's house, quarters; stable room for seventy horses, hay barns, etc. This property has the reputation of being, and is in reality, the most attractive and valuable farm in the vicinity of Richmond. In addition to its value as a stock farm and an attractive country residence, it is exceptionally valuable for the following purposes:

First, Its frontage of about one-half a

and an attractive country residence, it is exceptionally valuable for the following purposes:

First, Its frontage of about one-half a mile on James River, which at this point is about two feet deeper than at Richmond, makes it very valuable for manufacturing and shipping purposes. There is probably no better site than this for a large shippard and dry-dock.

Second. There is an excellent granite quarry on the property near the river; also, large deposit of brick-clay; splendid shipping facilities, both by water and railroad, the deposit of brick-clay being immediately on the Seaboard Air-Line Railway, which passes through the farm; and Third, The electric line that has been recently surveyed from Manchester to Petersburg along the Petersburg Turnpike passes immediately in front of the valuable for acreage lots.

TERMS: One-fourth cash, and the balance in one, two and three years, deferred payments bearing interest from day of sale, and secured by deed of trust, or the purchaser can make a larger cash payment if he desires so to do; interest on deferred payments to be paid semi-annually.

Reaching the Memorial Hall, in which the closing exercises were held, the exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of Winston, N. C.

Then followed most interesting addresses by the then ex-president of University, Dr. Kemp P. Battle, who has perhaps done poke on "The First Faculty: Its Work and Its Problems." And following him Dr. E. A. Alderman, the retiring president of the University, discussed "The University: Its Work and Its Needs." These addresses were all of a most interesting character and will, no doubt, be put into the commandation by the Board of Trustees.

ANNIVERSARY.

This being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the reopening of the University, several members of the class of "To were present, and of their number, W. J. Peele, of the Raleigh Bar, read a very interesting "Pen Picture of the Times of 1875." and Rev. John C. Troy gave a "Statistical History of the Men of 1875."

In the afternoon the exercises began in the presentation of the Carr building, and the address of presentation was made by Colonel W. H. S. Burgwyn. Following severe the exercises of graduation proper, which the degrees of Master of Aris and Buildings Last Night, The Committee on Grounds and Buildings met in regular session last night, with the following members present: Messrs. Marx Gunst (chairman), Blanks, Ferriter, King, Stein and West.

A communication from Major B. F. Howard, Chief of Police, was read, asking permission to use rooms 19 and 20, third floor of the City Hall, in order to store furnities and use the rooms in connection.

floor of the City Hall, in order to store furniture and use the rooms in connection with the Bertillon system for identification adopted for the measurement of crooks. The communication was referred to a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. King. West and Stein.

The committee ordered that bids be invited for fuel and ice and supplies for the departments for one year, which are to be opened at the next meeting of the body.

The City Engineer was authorized to arrange for current to run the electric fans in the Council chamber and the committee rooms.
